TAUB--Jesse, of Melville, NY passed away on August 10, 2019 at the age of 92. His loved ones include his wife Naomi Taub, his children Richard, Jocelyn, and Suzanne (deceased), and grandson Aaron. A member of the IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) and the Archeological Institute of America, he contributed immensely to the fields of electrical engineering, medicine, and social science, alike; but, what he is most remembered for is his dedication and love for his family and friends.

Really sorry to hear about Jesse Taub. He was a wonderful person. Will remember him in my own way with prayers for a Happy Journey Home and comfort for his family.

Sincerely, Ann M. Cole
